Joseph's Code

for young adults
by Don Bassett

A slave at 17, prime minister of all Egypt at 30, saved Egypt from starvation from 30 to 44, became his father's and his murderous brothers' deliverer, married an Egyptian woman of the ruling class, and lived to enjoy his great-grandchildren. Walk Joseph's journey and learn to live by his Code.

Don Bassett,

Chairman and Co-founder of the Museum of Biblical History in Collierville, Tennessee, has studied and traveled extensively in Bible lands, and to museums in Europe, The Middle East, and the United States in pursuit of his interest in historical and archaeological backgrounds of the Bible.

He studied Biblical archaeology in Israel as part of his master's degree program in religious studies from Harding University Graduate School of Religion. His doctorate is in Biblical Studies from Trinity Theological Seminary. He received his undergraduate degrees from Florida College and a degree with honors in history from the University of South Florida. His 35 years of church ministry included developing religious libraries and curricula in Bible studies and family-oriented study aids. In addition to academic lectures and presentations, Bassett conducted tours to lands of the Bible, including Israel, Jordan, Turkey, Greece, and Egypt.

He and his wife, Nancy, have a son, a daughter and six grandchildren.
