

JEREMIAH
INTRODUCTION TO THE MAN AND HIS WRITINGS

OUR GOAL THESE NEXT 3 MONTHS

- Examine the life and times of Jeremiah as layed out in his book
- Understand why this book was written and who it was written to/for
- Study what was happening to the nation of Israel during the life of Jeremiah

THE KINGS AND PROPHETS DURING THE DIVIDED KINGDOM

THE KINGS ARE COLOR CODED TO SHOW GOOD VS EVIL

THE PROPHETS ARE SHOWN IN BLUE DURING THE TIME IN WHICH THEY PROPHESIED

OUTLINE OF THE BOOK OF JEREMIAH

- The prophecies of Jeremiah are not recorded in chronological order. There are large and small sections from different periods of his life randomly joined together into a record of Jeremiah's prophecies.
- As spelled out in the outline in your introduction we will be stepping through the book in chunks, covering several chapters in some weeks, which will require you to read ahead since we won't have the time to read the passages during class.

CHRONOLOGY OF JEREMIAH

- The chronology of Jeremiah is at most times confusing and requires one to pay careful attention to context and rely heavily on the associated history given in The Book of Kings and the Chronicle of the Kings.
- This chart helps to arrange most of Jeremiah chronologically.

- Jeremiah means "YHWH will raise"
- He was the son of Hilkiah (1:1)
  - Most likely the High Priest Hilkiah during the reign of Josiah (2 Kings 22:4, 8-14) who found the Book of the Law of the Lord and had it delivered to young King Josiah. This leads us to understand that Hilkiah was righteous, and a Godly example of a parent.
  - This also lets us know that Jeremiah was a Levite.

- His home was Anathoth, a village in Judea about 3 miles NNE of Jerusalem
- It was a Levitical city (Joshua 21:18)

- He prophesied during the reigns of at least 5 kings of Judah, and beyond the beginning of their Babylonian captivity. He saw the destruction of Jerusalem in 586 B.C.
- We know he prophesied at least 40 years from 627-586 B.C. and maybe even as long as 50 years when you include his journey to Egypt later in his life.
- He was commanded not to marry and not to have children, as an example of the devastation Jerusalem would suffer. (16:2-3)

- He was faithful to God as a prophet, but he suffered GREATLY in the process. Throughout the book of Jeremiah we will look at the trials he endured including being lowered into a pit of mire (38:1-6) and threats against his life (11:18-20)
- Jeremiah lamented greatly over Judah's choice to reject God, knowing what would befall them
- Contemporaries to Jeremiah were the other prophets Zephaniah, Nahum, Habakkuk and towards the end of his life, Daniel and Ezekiel who were most likely younger than Jeremiah.

• Tradition says Jeremiah dies in Egypt. His being carried against his will into Egypt is recorded in the latter part of the book (chapter 43)

JEREMIAH'S CHARACTER

- The "weeping" prophet named so because of his sympathy towards his people and their choices.
- A perseverent and patient man in spite of a rebellious people who hated him for telling them the truth.
- It was obvious he got discouraged at times.

BACKGROUND OF THE BOOK

- As Jeremiah begins the prophesy, Northern Israel has been in Assyrian captivity for about 100 years (721-627 B.C.)
- Judah has grown more corrupt and their doom has been sealed as a result of the sins of Manassah, Josiah's father (2 Kings 21:10-16, Jeremiah 15:3-4).
- Jeremiah begins to prophesy during the reign of Josiah, Judah's last righteous king during the 13th year of his reign. (1:2). His message is received too little, too late.

THE MESSAGE OF THE BOOK

- Jeremiah is not in chronological order.
- The overall message is to Judah and Jerusalem to prepare for captivity because of their sin — there is NO turning back. Even Moses and Samuel could not change God's mind (15:1)
- The latter part of the book is also a warning to all nations of God's judgement
- As with most of the prophets, we find glimpses of the Messiah through the book.

JEREMIAH CHAPTER 1

- As an exception to the rule for this class, we will read the first chapter in class.
- Introduction (vs 1-3)
- Jeremiah's Call (vs 4-10)
- Vision of the Almond Tree (vs 11-12)
- Vision of the Boiling Pot facing away from the north (vs 13-19)
