LESSONS AND APPLICATIONS

34:8-11 - Here we find an example of superficial repentance. Judah's sin is revealed concerning their failure to release their servants after 7 years. When they hear it they obey but later they change their mind and made their servant return. Similarly today, many will repent in the presence of those who are exposing their wrong, but when their backs are turned they revert back to their sinful ways. This is NOT true repentance.

LESSONS AND APPLICATIONS

- In the Rechabites of chapter 35 we find an example of steadfastness and loyalty. It is a virtue that we should strive to imitate in our lives. We should allow nothing to remove us from the TRUTH.
- 36:22-24 - Just as Jehoiakim tried to destroy the word of the Lord, so many today mutilate and try to remove God's word from their lives and that of others. But they will never succeed. Why?

LESSONS AND APPLICATIONS

- 36:24 - After the king cut up and burned the first scroll we are told that there was no fear or tearing of the garments. How hardened they must have been to God's word. There OUGHT to be some things that strike fear and disgust in our hearts immediately. Chief among them is a blatant irreverence for God's word.
