Chapter 14:13-23

Reasoning with the Strong About the Seriousness of Causing the Weak to Offend

Theme for this section stated:

Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge ye this rather, that no man put a stumblingblock in his brother's way, or an occasion of falling. (v.13)

Theme for this section stated:

Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge ye this rather, that no man put a stumblingblock in his brother's way, or an occasion of falling. (v.13)

- To the weak, do not judge (condemn) a brother for that which his complete (strong) knowledge allows (Last week)
- To the strong, do not judge (condemn) a brother for that which his incomplete (weak) knowledge does not allow (Last week)

Theme for this section stated:

Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge ye this rather, that no man put a stumblingblock in his brother's way, or an occasion of falling. (v.13)

- To the weak and strong, do not judge (condemn) a brother for that which his complete (strong) knowledge allows or that which his incomplete knowledge allows
- To the weak and strong, do judge a knowledgeable brother who abuses those with less complete knowledge ( a weaker brother)

The reason for judgement:

- The reason for such judgement is not the strong's participation in a sinful activity – the activity is not itself sinful

I know, and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus, that nothing is unclean of itself... (v.14a)

The reason for judgement:

- The reason for such judgement is not the strong's participation in a sinful activity – the activity is not itself sinful

I know, and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus, that nothing is unclean of itself... (v.14a)

- Judge (condemn) the man who abuses someone with incomplete knowledge (the weak) by his participation in some activity -- this is not “walking in love” (v.14)
- Cf. I Corinthians 8:1,4-7

Now concerning things sacrificed to idols: We know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffeth up, but love edifieth...Concerning therefore the eating of things sacrificed to idols, we know that no idol is anything in the world, and that there is no God but one. For though there be that are called gods, whether in heaven or on earth; as there are gods many, and lords many; yet to us there is one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we unto him; and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom are all things, and we through him. Howbeit there is not in all men that knowledge: but some, being used until now to the idol, eat as of a thing sacrificed to an idol; and their conscience being weak is defiled.

I Corinthians 8:1, 4-7

The reason for judgement:

- The weak is “destroyed” by participation in that which is “sin” because it is “not of faith” (v. 23)
- Conscience never defines sinful activity, for either the weak or strong (nor can it make fake gods into the real God)
  - The job of the conscience is only to evaluate whether I participate in the things my knowledge (of the Word) tells me to participate in

What does it mean to “overthrow faith”:

- The weak person is:
  - Caused to “stumble” (v.13, 21)

Thayer (V.13) noun

- 1) a stumbling block
- 1a) an obstacle in the way which if one strikes his foot against he stumbles or falls
- 1b) that over which a soul stumbles, i.e. by which is caused to sin

1b1a) of institutions, forms of government, laws, etc., to deprive of force, annul, abrogate, discard

1c) of travellers, to halt on a journey, to put up, lodge (the figurative expression originating in the circumstance that, to put up for the night, the straps and packs of the beasts of burden are unbound and taken off; or, more correctly from the fact that the traveller’s garments, tied up when he is on the journey, are unloosed at it end)

The proper course for those having complete knowledge

- Do not expose the weak to what would destroy (v. 21)
  - "...it is good not to eat flesh..."
  - Infinitive in the aorist tense. This is an action that takes place at some point, as opposed to continued action or habitual practice
- Walk as recognizing that Christ died for more than meat (v. 15b-17)
- Continue to have your faith-activities with God (v. 22a)

The true nature of the kingdom

- In the Holy Spirit, finding:
  - Righteousness
  - Peace
  - Joy
- If you serve your brother, you serve Christ
